Bill Harris Slams Homer To Take Highland Park 3-2

The Torrance Signal Oilers Sunday afternoon took a ten-inning scramble for the Highland Park Ramblers at Torrance Park, 3-2, when Bill Harris, outfielder-pitcher, proving he can win ball games on the mound or at the plate, slammed out a long round tripper over the right field wall to finish a close contest.

Fine fielding play by both squads kept the respective hurriers out of hot water all the way through, with a pair of double killings marked up by both infielders.

Arch Campbell, Oiler moundsman, went the full route, as did Arnold Linniger, southpaw flinger of the Ramblers and one of three Linniger brothers on the club. The pitching Linniger drove in a run in the fourth frame with a two-bagger. The other marks for the visiting club came off the bat of Myrl Saxebly, shortstop, via a home run in the fifth.

Narbonne Track Squad Trims Tartars 65 1/2-38 1/2

The Gaucha track squad of Narbonne high school started off the Marine League in fast style last Friday afternoon by polishing off the Torrance Tartar varsity 65 1/2 to 38 1/2 on the Narbonne cinder paths.

The Gauchos were sparked by John Moffitt, sprinter, streaking the 220 in :23.8, and hurdler Bill Stitts, who grabbed the 120 high hurdles in :16.5.

Torrance took the Bee meet, "chose up sides" for the opening elimination matches in qualifying for the Southern California C.Y.O. "Diamond Belt" championships.

Such headliners of recent months as Tony Contreras, Ernest Sandoval, Freddie Negrete, Davey Mendoza, Hank Herring, Sal Rios, Pat Ryan, Bill Winger, Epi Serna and others who have given the Bowl a rating with the State Athletic Commission as the No. 1 amateur fight arena in the Southwest, will keep the home fires burning by settling a few personal feuds.

Pairings had not been drawn late today, since entries will be accepted until 5 p.m. tomorrow from any boxer in the Harbor area.

Outstanding rivalry of the tournament looms in the lightweight division where Sandoval, Negrete and Contreras are all rated among leading favorites with the fans, and tabbed as definite title threats in the C. Y. O. competition. Pat Ryan, Joe Craig's new heavyweight comer, will make his debut in the tournament.

The first match tomorrow will begin at 8:30 p.m.

BOWLING NEWS

EVA "TOOTS" YARBROUGH

L. Sommers, initiating a brand new "apple," was the top buster in the Monday night Industrial league. He scored games of 221 and 204. J. Ballard rated a spot lite for his games of 213 and 206. Bud Lee was next in line with a 209. Others joining the 200 parade were P. Reasbeck 207, R. Curry 205, Mac McKee 204 and 203, G. Jones and J. Crawford 202.

A certain guy we all call "Red" Ossea got himself a bunch of strikes last Tuesday night for three grand games of 214, 204 and 215, and a 633 series in the 800 scratch league. That's nice rolling, Red. Ernie Cloward grabbed the high game of the evening with his 244 game. R. Reese rolled a 215, L. Backlund 213, T. Reeves 208, B. Llewellyn 203 and G. Forbes 200. E. Litaker connected the 3-10 twice for spares, T. Reeves mastered the 5-6 and C. Satterfield the 5-7.

Apparently there is no limit to what a fellow will do for the home team. In the mixed doubles league last Wednesday night, Kaye Pedersen blasted out a 243 score to win the game by 5 pins. He was only six pins short of a 600 series with a 594. E. Needham and M. Yarbrough shared the number two honor with 208 each. J. Townsend came through with a 207, D. Coa 204 and J. Faust 203. Pat Shaner continues to outshine all the 'gals. Last week she scored games of 155-136 and 174 for a 515 series. L. Sommers turned the tables on the 9-10, 9-7 and the 5-8-10 splits, and J. Prince collected a spare on the 4-7.

A. Vaughan grabbed a 629 series last Thursday night in the 850 scratch with his games of 211 and 236. L. Sommers blasted out the high game of 239. P. Buckley chalked up a 230, followed by J. Bassett 212, G. Staak 209, G. Nelson 209, A. Halgerson 207, J. Clark 204, C. Field 203, L. Deininger and L. Buckley 201.

In the Columbia Steel league on Friday night R. Wilson rolled the high game of the evening of 212. Only three others made the 200 mark. They were C. Benner 205, C. Richardson 203 and M. Richardson 201.

Torrance Bowl had the welcome mat out for Al Coast last Saturday night. Al recently returned from Japan, where he served as a lieutenant in the Army. Prior to his entry in the service, Al was one of the top keepers in Torrance and we're all waiting for his comeback. Welcome home and good bowling, Al.
